

Announcement – Atlantic Chartering Office

Asia Maritime Pacific Announces the Opening of New London Based Chartering Office

Asia Maritime Pacific (AMP) is pleased to announce the opening of its Atlantic chartering office. The office will be located in London, United Kingdom and will commence operations from 17 June 2013.

The office will be headed by Peter Cottrell and will provide chartering services for AMP in the Atlantic for AMP's dry bulk business, predominantly in the Handysize sector. Mr. Cottrell is an exciting addition to AMP's knowledgeable chartering team, with over 35 years of experience in the Atlantic dry cargo shipping industry in both brokerage and chartering.

AMP is excited about this new development, which will expand the Company's chartering presence and improve its services to its customers through a knowledgeable and on-the-ground presence in the Atlantic market.

AMP is headquartered in Hong Kong and has offices in Shanghai, Beijing, Tokyo, London, Douala and (through its association with Rhumb Maritime) Melbourne and Santiago.

To contact Peter Cottrell directly to discuss your chartering or business needs, please email london@ampship.com. For further information on the location of AMP's offices or on AMP's business, please visit www.ampship.com or contact Olivia Lennox-King (olk@ampship.com).
